JOIN DREW BREES AND PEFCU FOR CHARITY GOLF OUTING

West Lafayette, Ind. – March 2, 2010 – Join New Orleans Saints Quarterback and PEFCU Spokesperson Drew Brees for the 4th Annual Brees Dream Foundation Golf Outing presented by Purdue Employees Federal Credit Union (PEFCU) on Wednesday, June 23, at the Birck Boilermaker Golf Complex in West Lafayette.

Space is limited for this charitable golf outing and awards banquet featuring cocktails and a live sports memorabilia auction. Individual golfers and foursomes may sign up for a tournament-format session starting at 8 a.m., a scramble-format session starting at 1 p.m., or both sessions. Cost is $150 per golfer for one session, $250 per golfer for both sessions, and $600 for a foursome. Register online at www.purdueefcu.com under “Events Calendar” or call 765.497.7473.

Please no autographs or guests this year. Autographed memorabilia will be available during the live auction and due to limited space only registered golfers will be able to participate in the day’s events including the awards banquet and auction.

All proceeds from this fundraiser—including golf fees and funds raised during the live auction—benefit the Purdue Athletes Life Success (PALS) program, which is a five-week camp that provides sports, fitness, health instruction, financial literacy (provided by PEFCU staff) to local, underprivileged youth aged 10-16. The Brees Dream Foundation and PEFCU are committed to raising funds needed to keep this worthwhile program a fixture in the Greater Lafayette community.

About The Brees Dream Foundation

The Brees Dream Foundation was established in 2003 by Drew and Brittany Brees. Its mission is to advance research in the fight to against cancer and to provide care, education and opportunities for children in need.
